

Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair
Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair
Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair
Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair
Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair
Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair
Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair	Fair / Unfair

Unit 3: Fairness
Lesson 1: Fair and Unfair

All those with blue eyes will be able to have an extra playtime and all those without blue eyes will have to stay in and miss their playtime.	You must go to bed at 7.30pm tonight.	You can't have any sweets unless you eat your tea.
I got the blame for breaking the window and it wasn't me!	Mummy bought me a new car and its wheel fell off the first time I played with it.	Arshad brought sweets into class for his birthday but he didn't give me one.
It's always 'Yellow group' who gets to go first.	I never share my toys with anyone.	Daddy told me not to let anybody ride on my new bike.
My brother got a new mobile phone for Christmas but it wouldn't work. The shop won't change it!	The whole class had to stay in for five minutes longer because Tommy was making silly noises.	Our teacher has to stop when she's reading a story because Scott is always talking.
Molly travels on an aeroplane every year for a holiday.	Steven is always the first to be chosen in P.E. because he is good at everything.	Everybody in class got some of Aisha's birthday cake except for me.
Gary is late every morning for school.	Miss Smith always gives Faye a sticker, even if she is silly.	Next door's new puppy is left outside in its kennel, in the rain.

Fold Here

Fair

Fold Here

Unfair